HEAD COACH BRANDON EGGUM

BRANDON EGGUM

HEAD COACH | SIXTH SEASON

Brandon Eggum enters his sixth season as head coach at the University of Minnesota in 2021-22, after spending five previous seasons as the program's head assistant coach.

Last season was Eggum's 20th season as a part of the program's wrestling staff. Prior to assuming an assistant coach role in 2004, Eggum served as the team's strength and conditioning coordinator (2001-2004).

Since joining the staff in 2000-01 following a decorated career as a Golden Gopher wrestler, Eggum has helped train and develop 11 individual national champions, 32 individual conference champions, and 96 all-americans. Eggum helped play a crucial part in the national title runs of Luke Becker, Jared Lawrence, Dustin Schlatter, Jayson Ness, and Gable Steveson, as well as two-time champions Damion Hahn, Cole Konrad, and Tony Nelson.

Minnesota has also had a remarkable run of team success throughout Eggum's tenure, a stretch that has included all three of the program's national team titles, five Big Ten championships, and seven National Duals crowns.

While becoming interim head coach prior to the 2016-17 season, Eggum was officially named head coach on January 26, 2017. Since the beginning of the 2016-2017 season, Eggum has accumulated a 47-29 dual record, three top-10 NCAA team finishes, and twelve NCAA All-Americans. In March 2021, Gable Steveson became the first NCAA champion under Coach Eggum's guidance with an 8-4 decision victory over Michigan's Mason Parris. Steveson also earned Eggum's first two conference titles in back-to-back seasons in 2020 and 2021.

During the 2020-21 season, Coach Eggum led Minnesota to an improved 7-2 record on the year, along with a seventh-place finish at the NCAA Tournament with three All-Americans. Gable Steveson earned both his first national title as an athlete, and Eggum's as a head coach with an 8-4 victory in the heavyweight title match over Michigan's Mason Parris. In addition, Patrick McKee and Brayton Lee earned third and sixth place, respectively. Patrick McKee also earned the Gorrian Award, which is given to the individual who obtains the most falls in the least amount of time at the national tournament, becoming the program's second winner of the award.

In 2019-20, Eggum led Minnesota to a 9-8 dual record on the season, while earning eighth place including an individual conference champion in Gable Steveson. Unfortunately, due to circumstances surrounding the COVID-19 pandemic. Due to cancellation, the National Wrestling Coaches Association (NWCA) rewarded program individuals with three first-team All-America honors (Brayton Lee, Devin Skatzka, Gable Steveson), and one second-team All-America honor (Mitch McKee).

The 2018-19 season saw Eggum collect his best dual record in his head coaching tenure thus far, with the Golden Gophers went 14-3 on the season, finishing the year with an eighth-place NCAA team finish and four All-Americans (Ethan Lizak, Mitch McKee, Devin Skatzka, Gable Steveson). Minnesota also hosted the Big Ten Championships during the 2018-19 season, where they placed fourth under Eggum.

In Coach Eggum's first full season at the helm in 2017-18, the Gophers collected an 8-6 record on the season, placing 17th at the NCAA Championships in Cleveland, Ohio, with Ethan Lizak earning the team's lone All-America honors with a 4th-place finish at 125 pounds. Minnesota also went on the place 7th at the Big Ten Championships.

Named interim head coach prior to the beginning of the 2016-2017 season. His efforts under the interim tag, which included a 5-3 dual record and two top-5 tournament finishes at the Cliff Keen Invitational and the Southern Scuffle, were rewarded when the University of Minnesota removed the interim tag and hired Brandon Eggum as the eighth head coach in program history. Following the hire, Eggum and the Golden Gophers finished the season with a 7-5 record, a fifth place finish at the Big Ten Championships, and a seventh-place finish at the NCAA Championships. At the NCAA Tournament, Minnesota's Ethan Lizak and Brett Pfarr became the first NCAA finalists in Coach Eggum's head coaching tenure. Following the season, Eggum was named the Rookie Head Coach of the Year as voted by Amatuer Wrestling News.

On the recruiting trail, Eggum has proven to have recurring success as well. Since the 2017 recruiting class (Eggum's first incoming recruiting class following his hire), Minnesota has collected three Top-20 recruiting class rankings from FloWrestling, including two top-10 classes. The 2018 recruiting class has proven to be Eggum's premier recruiting class thus far in Coach Eggum's career, being ranked third for the Class of 2018, and including the program's most recent All-Americans Gable Steveson, Patrick McKee, and Brayton Lee. The Golden Gophers' incoming recruiting class ranks seventh by FloWrestling, and includes five Top-100 recruits, which is tied for first among all recruiting classes in the nation.

Prior to his coaching career, Eggum was a four-time letter-winner for the Gophers from 1997-2000. As a sophomore earned his first All-America honors at 177 pounds when he placed fifth at the 1998 NCAA Championships. Starting in 1999, Eggum bumped up to 184 pounds, where he would place second and third in consecutive NCAA championships, respectively. Eggum also won the Big Ten title at his weight in both of those seasons, and helped Minnesota win the 1999 Big Ten championship, which was the program's first since 1959.

Still to this day, Eggum's name holds a presence in the program's record books, where his 115 career wins, .833 career winning percentage, and 61 career dual victories all rank among the Top-25 in Gopher history.

On the international circuit, coach Eggum has been able to find success not only as an athlete, but as a coach as well. As a wrestler, Eggum earned a silver medal at the 2001 World Championships at 85kg, while also becoming a silver medalist at the 2002 Pan American Freestyle Championships, and a bronze medalist at the 2003 U.S. National Freestyle Championships. As a coach, Eggum has served as the personal coach for Gable Steveson, who became an Olympic Gold medalist at the 2020 Olympic Games after defeating multiple-time world champions Taha Akgul (Turkey) and Geno Petriashvili (Georgia) en route to the Olympic Gold. Steveson also won the 2021 Pan American gold under Eggum.

In addition to his experience coaching the collegiate level, Eggum has spent many years working closely with local wrestling clubs. He speaks and teaches at clinics across the country, sharing his knowledge and passion for the sport.

As impressive as Eggum was on the wrestling mat, he also stood out in the classroom as a four-time Academic All-Big Ten selection. He graduated from the University of Minnesota in May 2000 with a B.S. in Applied Economics. A native of Sidney, Mont., Eggum currently resides in Stillwater, Minn., with his wife Katrina, son Greyson, and two daughters, Lillian and Monroe.

LUKE BECKER

HEAD ASSISTANT COACH | SIXTH SEASON

Luke Becker has served as the team's head assistant coach since 2016-17 after spending the previous eight seasons as the program's assistant coach. He will enter his 19th season on the Golden Gopher staff in 2021-22. Prior to his current role, Becker served as the program's assistant and volunteer assistant coach and, previous to that, as the team's marketing and promotions director. A former 157-pound NCAA champion, Becker often works closely with the Gophers' current crop of middleweights.

After serving as one of the key contributors on the mat for Minnesota's first two national titles in 2001 and 2002, Becker was a part of the coaching staff that helped guide the Gophers to the program's third national championship in 2007, back-to-back Big Ten titles in 2006 and 2007, and five National Duals championships. Since Becker has been on staff, Minnesota has placed in the top-10 nationally 14 times, including trophy finishes in 2012, 2013 and 2014 with Becker serving as assistant coach.

The Gopher All-Americans just since Becker became an assistant coach in 2009 is a who's who of collegiate wrestling, including: Chris Dardanes, Nick Dardanes, Brayton Lee, Ethan Lizak, Roger Kish, Michael Kroells, Mitch McKee, Patrick McKee, Tony Nelson, Dylan Ness, Jayson Ness, Brett Pfarr, Tyler Safratowich, Zach Sanders, Scott Schiller, Devin Skatzka, Kevin Steinhaus, Gable Steveson, Logan Storley, David Thorn, Mike Thorn, Tommy Thorn, Cody Yohn, Sonny Yohn, Danny Zilverberg and Gable Steveson. In that same timeframe, Becker has coached Steveson, Nelson, Steinhaus, Mike Thorn and both Ness brothers to Big Ten titles, as well as national championships for Steveson, Nelson and Jayson Ness.

Equally impressive to his coaching resume are his accomplishments when he wore the Gopher singlet as a four-time letterwinner from 2000 to 2003. Becker was an All-American all four seasons, winning an individual national title in 2002. He was a key contributor to the program's first two national championships (2001, 2002). He also won two individual Big Ten titles (2002, 2003) and was part of three Big Ten championship teams (2001-03). He remains one of the most-accomplished wrestlers in program history, ranking among the program's top 20 in career wins (126), career dual wins (60) and career pins (29).

Prior to joining the Gophers, Becker was a three-time Minnesota state champion from Cambridge, Minn. He finished his high school career as the winningest high school wrestler in Minnesota history at that time, with 210 prep victories.

Becker graduated from the University of Minnesota in May 2003, with a B.A. in an intercollegiate program consisting of educational psychology and youth studies. He currently resides in Lake Elmo, Minn., with his wife Christa, daughter Brittlyn, and son Bo.

TREVOR BRANDVOLD

ASSISTANT COACH | FOURTH SEASON

Trevor Brandvold is entering his fourth season as assistant coach for the Golden Gophers after spending his first six seasons as a coach with the University of Wisconsin. Brandvold works closely with the Minnesota upper-weights, including Gopher All-Americans Devin Skatzka and Gable Steveson as well as national qualifiers Owen Webster and Hunter Ritter. Under Brandvold's guidance, Gable Steveson became the program's first NCAA Champion since 2013. Steveson also won two Big Ten championships training with coach Brandvold.

Brandvold has also assisted with Steveson's development on the international circuit as Steveson's personal coach and primary training partner. In April 2021, Steveson would win the U.S. Olympic Trials over two-time world bronze medalist Nick Gwiazdowski with Brandvold in his corner to qualify for the Tokyo Olympics. Brandvold would then travel with Steveson and coach Brandon Eggum to Tokyo, acting as Steveson's training partner throughout the entirety of Steveson's gold medal run at the 2020 Olympic Games.

Known for his recruiting ability, Brandvold has provided a boost for the Gophers on the recruiting trail as Minnesota has improved their recruiting each season since Brandvold joined the staff. In three recruiting classes with Brandvold on staff, the Gophers have collected two top-20 recruiting classes, including the seventh-best class for the Class of 2021. Some upperweights recruited by Coach Brandvold include Rowan Morgan, Isaiah Salazar, Sam Skillings, and Bennett Tabor, as well as incoming transfers Keaton Kluever and Jared Kratiger.

In his six years with the Badgers prior to his current stint in Minnesota, Brandvold coached alongside wrestling legend and former Wisconsin head coach Barry Davis. Brandvold also served as the head recruiter for the Badgers. In Madison, Brandvold's primary duty as a coach was to guide Wisconsin's five heaviest weight classes, helping bring the Wisconsin program nine NCAA qualifying spots, three All-Americans, and a national finalist within his specialized weight group. Along with his coaching accomplishments on the mat, he was also in charge of academics, community service, high school outreach, and was the Badger RTC liaison.

On the mat, Brandvold compiled a 82-31 career record for Wisconsin, earning two NCAA All-America honors, and two Big Ten championships at 197 pounds. In high school, Brandvold was ranked No. 1 in the nation at 189 pounds his senior season, as he won a Wisconsin state title with a 46-0 record. Brandvold ranks third in all-time prep wins (146) and tied for first in career prep pins (101) for his hometown River Falls high school.

Brandvold, who graduated from Wisconsin in 2011 with a degree in life sciences communications, currently resides in St. Paul, Minn., with his wife Ali, and their three children.

ZACH SANDERS

VOLUNTEER ASSISTANT COACH | SIXTH SEASON

Zach Sanders enters his sixth season as a volunteer assistant coach for the Golden Gophers, after previously acting as an administrative assistant for the University of Minnesota wrestling staff. Sanders joined the staff prior to the 2012-13 season following a successful career on the mat for the Gophers. The 2016-17 season was Sanders first season promoted to the coaching staff.

Coach Sanders works closely with the Gopher lightweights, helping produce consistent Top-10 level talent at those weight classes, with names that include Ethan Lizak, Mitch McKee, Patrick McKee, Sean Russell and Tommy Thorn.

As a wrestler for the Gophers, Sanders became the seventh four-time All-American in Gopher history with a third-place finish in the 125-pound division at the 2012 NCAA Championships. He finished his career ranked sixth on the Gophers' all-time wins list with a record of 134-27-1.

Sanders was ranked as high as No. 1 nationally during his senior season. He was named Team MVP for the second year in a row after going 32-4. Sanders took second at the Big Ten Championships, his best finish following two consecutive third-place showings.

Sanders finished sixth at the NCAA Tournament as a freshman before finishing fifth his next two years. He was named to the Amateur Wrestling News All-Rookie Team and voted both Most Outstanding Freshman and Most Exciting Wrestler by his teammates in 2009. Sanders was also an Academic All-Big Ten honoree during his career.

Following his decorated career in the Maroon & Gold, Sanders has accumulated almost a decade of international-style experience for Minnesota Storm and Gopher Wrestling Club. Some of Sanders' accomplishments include becoming a gold medalist at the 2014 Pan American Championships, as well as becoming a silver medalist at the 2015 Pan American Championships and the 2015 NYAC Bill Farrell International tournament. Sanders has represented USA Wrestling abroad numerous times, including the 2019 World Cup and has qualified for the World Team trials nearly ten times in his career.

In high school, Sanders compiled a 223-5 career record with five state titles under his father Ron Sanders at Wabasha-Kellogg high school. He was the consensus top-ranked recruit at 119 pounds and was the winner of the Dave Schultz excellence award, which is given to the top high school wrestler in the country.

Sanders graduated from the University of Minnesota in 2012 with his Bachelor's Degree in Business & Marketing education, before returning to school shortly after to fulfill his Masters degree in Applied Kinesiology.

PATRICK MCKEE

125 POUNDS | RS JUNIOR | ST. MICHAEL, MINN.

Patrick McKee enters his redshirt junior campaign coming off one of the most impressive runs in the 2021 NCAA tournament, rattling off six straight wins on the consolation side to battle back and place third as the 15th-seed in the tournament. The performance capped off a 15-7 season for McKee, which included a 6-3 conference record and six pins. Now coming off of a big second season jump, McKee returns as one of the established veterans in the lineup and one of the top 125-pounders in the nation, being ranked 5th in both preseason polls.

MARCOS POLANCO

141 POUNDS | RS SOPHOMORE | WEST COVINA, CALIF.

With large shoes to fill at 141 pounds following the departure of Gopher All-American Mitch McKee, Marcos Polanco jumped to the occasion to fill the spot and become a serviceable replacement for the Gophers in 2020-21. In his first season of varsity competition, Polanco was an NCAA qualifier and held a 5-4 record in conference play. Now with a season of wrestling under his belt, Polanco enters the 2021-22 campaign looking to build off his freshman year and solidify himself into the Minnesota lineup for years to come. Polanco enters the season ranked 21st/26th in the preseason polls.

2020-21 FRESHMAN SEASON:

At-Large NCAA qualifier
• dropped decisions against No. 5 seed Dom Demas of Oklahoma and No. 12 Grant Willitts of Oregon State in first NCAA Championship appearance • beat No. 14 Dominic Dentino of Wisconsin, 5-4, in first Big Ten Championship appearance • finished 5-4 in first year as starter • seven of his nine losses came against ranked opponents • earned first career win against Danny Bertoni of Maryland, 6-0 (1/16) • closed out regular season with wins against Dentino and Northwestern's Colin Valdieviez • Academic All-Big Ten selection.

2019-20 | REDSHIRT SEASON:

MICHAEL BLOCKHUS

149 POUNDS | RS JUNIOR | CRESCO, IOWA

After transferring from Northern Iowa prior to the 2020-21 season, Michael Blockhus stepped in as a strong contributor to the Gopher lineup in his first season Maroon & Gold. Blockhus recorded a solid 9-8 record as a redshirt sophomore and came on strong at the second half of the year, including upset wins over Northwestern's Yahya Thomas and Purdue's Griffin Parriott. Those wins paved the way for a fourth-place finish at the Big Ten Tournament for Blockhus and his second NCAA Tournament. Coming into this season, Blockhus looks to lead the self-proclaimed "murderers row" of Gopher middleweights and take a big leap in his second season in Minnesota. Blockhus will enter the season slotted at 18th/28th in the preseason rankings.

2020-21 | SOPHOMORE SEASON: 2021 NCAA qualifier. finished 1-2 at NCAA Championships • began nationals with 10-0 major decision against No. 19 Casey Cobb of Navy • seeded sixth and finished fourth with 3-2 record at Big Ten Championships • reached Big Ten semifinals after upsetting No. 3 seed Griffin Parriott of Purdue in quarterfinals • closed out dual season with 3-2 decision over No. 12 Yahya Thomas of Northwestern (2/21).

BEFORE MINNESOTA: Spent two seasons at Northern Iowa • earned NWCA honorable mention All-America honors as a redshirt freshman in 2020 • compiled a 22-10 record and earned a No. 13 seed at the NCAA Championships • had a 9-3 dual meet record • placed fifth at 141 pounds at the Big 12 Championships • went 18-4 during his redshirt season in 2019 • placed fourth at the Midlands Championships • Three-time Iowa state champion and four-time finalist with a 166-8 career record • won his first state title as a freshman at 106 pounds in 2015 • earned second title as a junior at 126 pounds in Class 2A • went 57-0 his senior year and won the state title at 138 pounds • took second at 120 pounds as a sophomore in 2016 • won both the Greco and freestyle divisions of the 2017 Iowa/USA Junior State Championships at 138 pounds.

BRAYTON LEE

157 POUNDS | RS JUNIOR | BROWNSBURG, IND.

Acting as a model of consistency in the middle of the Gophers lineup, Brayton Lee was once again one of the most reliable wrestlers for Minnesota in 2020-21, tallying a 14-6 record and earning his first All-America honors in his second NCAA Tournament after placing sixth. Of Lee's six losses in his redshirt sophomore season, none of them came from opponents ranked outside the top-seven. Looking forward to 2021-22, Lee will once again be a strong force at the core of the Gophers' lineup as he looks to jump into the national title conversation at 157 pounds. Lee will enter the season ranked 5th in both preseason polls.

2020-21 | SOPHOMORE SEASON: 2021 All-American • sixth-place finisher at 2021 NCAA Championships • finished 4-3 in first nationals appearance with only losses to top three seeds • clinched All-American status with 3-2 decision over Iowa's Kaleb Young to avenge two earlier losses • advanced to NCAA quarterfinals with wins over Connor Brady of Virginia Tech and Jacori Teemer of Arizona State • placed third at the Big Ten Championships with 3-1 record • clinched third with 6-3 decision against Michigan State's Chase Saldate • defeated No. 5 Kendall Coleman of Purdue in dual meeting (1/31) • pinned Maryland's Lucas Cordio in 5:00 (1/16).

2019-20 | FRESHMAN SEASON: 2020 NWCA first-team All-American • NCAA Qualifier • placed fourth at the Big Ten Championships • season ended on March 12, 2020, when the Big Ten and NCAA announced they were ceasing competitions and championships because of COVID-19 public health concerns • made collegiate dual debut and earned first dual victory on Nov. 1 against Russell Rohlfing of Cal State Bakersfield • Bison Open Champion • earned Cliff

ANDREW SPARKS

165 POUNDS | SOPHOMORE | COSTA MESA, CALIF.

One of the biggest surprises of the 2020–21 season for Minnesota was Andrew Sparks, who jumped onto the collegiate scene in his very first match as a true freshman where he upset #10 Peyton Robb in the season's opening dual. Sparks did not look back following that match, rolling to a 9–5 record, including an 8–1 record in the Big Ten, and a trip to his first NCAA Tournament. Now returning to the lineup at 165 pounds, Andrew Sparks will look to continue his meteoric rise through college wrestling and continue to improve on what is still a very young career in the sport. Sparks will come into the 2021–22 campaign ranked 19th/23rd in the preseason polls.

2020–21 I FRESHMAN SEASON: 2021 NCAA qualifier • earned starting position at 165 pounds as a true freshman • finished 8–1 during dual meet season • injured in third match at Big Ten Championships and did not finish tournament • advanced to Big Ten quarterfinals and improved to 9–1 with 8–4 decision against Northwestern's David Ferrante • dropped two matches at NCAA Championships while battling injury • made Gopher debut with 7–6 upset of No. 10 Peyton Robb of Nebraska (1/8) • upset No. 19 Jake Tucker of Michigan State, 8–7, in third career match (1/16) • had 13–3 major decision against Rutgers' Brett Donner (1/31) • recorded first career technical fall against Illinois' Luke Odom (2/5).

BEFORE MINNESOTA: A graduate of Calvary Chapel High School • high school coach was Dane Valdez, a two-time All-American at Oklahoma • 2020 California state champion • defeated Cael Valencia, the nation's second-ranked 160 pounder, in state finals by 7–1 decision • compiled 34–3 record during senior year • four-year letterwinner • four-time league champion • two-time CIF Southern Section champion • named Orange Coast athlete of the year • Orange County first-team selection • finished second at Masters 2020 and fifth at Masters 2019.

BEFORE MINNESOTA: Son of Barry and Linda Sparks • has three brothers • has lived in five different states • committed to Gophers without visiting campus due to pandemic • began wrestling as a freshman in high school • born January 1, 2002 • Orange County first-team selection • finished second at Masters 2020 and fifth at Masters 2019.

GARRETT JOLES

197 POUNDS | RS JUNIOR | BOYCEVILLE, WIS.

In his second season in the Minnesota lineup, Garrett Joles showed flashes of improvement in what was yet again a very tough weight class at 197 pounds. The Boyceville, Wis., native started in every dual for Minnesota and closed out the regular season with back-to-back dual victories over Wisconsin's Andrew Salemme and Northwestern's Jon Halverson. Heading into 2021-22, Joles will look to make a third-year leap and reach the NCAA Tournament for the first time in his career.

2020-21 | SOPHOMORE SEASON: Finished 1-2 at first Big Ten Championships • pinned Wisconsin's Andrew Salemme in 4:25 in Big Ten consolations • closed out regular season with back-to-back wins over Salemme and Northwestern's Jon Halvorsen • Academic All-Big Ten selection.

GABLE STEVESON

HEAVYWEIGHT | SENIOR | APPLE VALLEY, MINN.

Gable Steveson was dominant in every facet of the word in the 2020-21 season. After losing the opportunity to win his first NCAA title in 2020 when the NCAA Championships were cancelled due to COVID-19, he came back with a vengeance, rolling through the competition with a perfect 17-0 record and an 82.4% bonus rate. Steveson closed out the year by earning his second Big Ten crown, and winning that elusive first NCAA title to become the 16th national champion in program history. In the off-season, Steveson added to his trophy collection by winning the gold medal at the 2020 Tokyo Olympics, defeating three-time world Geno Petriashvili in dramatic fashion by securing the winning takedown as time expired. After announcing his return to Minnesota in the off-season, Steveson will enter his final season in a Gopher singlet as the best heavyweight in the nation and will look to cement his status as one of the greatest wrestlers in Minnesota program history.

2020-21 JUNIOR SEASON: Hodge Trophy winner • NCAA Heavyweight Champion • Defeated No. 2 Mason Parris, 8-4, in national final • Had 16-6 major decision against No. 5 Tony Cassioppi of Iowa in semifinals • Won second straight Big Ten Championship • First two-time Minnesota champion since 2014 • First Gopher since 2005 to be named Most Outstanding Wrestler of the Championship • Earned 12-4 major decision against Parris in final • Completed second straight unbeaten season with 17-0 record • Gave up one takedown in 17 matches • Began year with 14 straight wins with bonus points • Had second-fastest pin in school history with 13-second fall against Michigan State's Connor Bowes (1/16) • Recorded 14-6 major decision against No. 3 Cassioppi (1/23) • Pinned No. 6 Luke Luffman of Illinois in 34 seconds (2/5) • Academic All-Big Ten selection.

2019-20 | SOPHOMORE SEASON: Big Ten Heavyweight Champion • NCAA Qualifier • Top-seed entering the canceled NCAA Championships • Undefeated 15-0 record • Finishes second-straight regular season undefeated, this time 12-0 in duals • Made season debut on December 20 against South Dakota State • Combined for a 29-0 dual record in first two seasons • Started season with bonus points in 10 out of first 12 matches.

2020-21 | FRESHMAN SEASON: Letterwinner • Awarded team's Most Outstanding Wrestler and Freshman of the Year at annual team banquet • Golden Gophers' Rookie of the Year • Top-ranked heavyweight by January of freshman season • 30 consecutive wins is a top-15 consecutive wins streak in Gophers' history • Passed Brandon Eggum, Zach Sanders, and Luke Becker's all-time winning streaks • Daktronics Open Champion • Bison Open Champion • Cliff Keen Las Vegas Invitational Champion • Upset Oklahoma State's Derek White in first career dual start • Big Ten Runner-up • Finished third at the 2019 NCAA Championships, the highest placement of any true freshman that year.

BEFORE MINNESOTA: Four-time State Champion from Apple Valley, Minn. • Prep record of 210-3 • Two-time Cadet World Champion • Junior World Champion • Competed at U.S. Open tournament • Ranked as the #1 pound-for-pound recruit in the nation coming out of high school • Committed to Minnesota on ESPN's NCAA Tournament national broadcast.

PERSONAL: Son of Robert and Laticia Steveson • Has two siblings • Brother Bobby Steveson wrestled for Gophers from 2017-2020 • High School teammates with fellow Gopher wrestler Sebas Swiggum.
